BUILDING A FAMILY OF FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST — THROUGH CATHOLIC WORSHIP, EDUCATION & CHARITY.

AUGUST 9, 2020

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Receive Jesus to Become Jesus

Our best wishes to Julie and Tim White!

The Catechism of our Catholic Church teaches us that we need to pray and participate at Mass, so that God can reveal His plan and bless us with the power of the Holy Spirit. The Mass is the perfect prayer offering us His divine guidance in the Liturgy of the Word. This gives us the ability to put on the mind and heart of Jesus. In the Liturgy of the Eucharist, Jesus nourishes us with His very Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. None of us are perfect in obeying the Commandments of God, and in living a life of charity; therefore, we must pray for the living and deceased. Part of being a Christian is to pray at Mass for our loved ones and others who do not share our values or beliefs. The Lord taught us when we pray the 'Our Father' we say, "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."

Life in Christ is the exciting privilege of living far beyond our human limitations. Like Elijah the prophet, we must examine and purify our conscience by listening to Jesus "whispering" to us. His way is to die in selfishness and live for His promise of eternal life and love with all the angels and saints. The Christian community prayed for Saul the persecutor, and God converted him to become Saint Paul, the great promoter of Christianity. Paul reminds us as he did the Corinthians: "He died for all so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for Him Who for their sakes died and was raised up." (2 Cor 5:15)

Jesus is not asking you, "Can you walk on water?" At every Mass, however, Jesus challenges us to live a life of faith, hope and love with every thought, word and deed from our minds and hearts! Are we allowing fear of physical death from the coronavirus to destroy our faith in participating at Mass in church or through live streaming? Are we praying to obey God's plan or for God to follow my way? Do we believe that the Sacrament of Reconciliation enables us to forgive ourselves and even our enemies? Do we trust that the Eucharist nourishes our intellect and free will to believe: God sent us Jesus not to take away or explain our suffering, but rather to embrace us and assure us of His presence when we are healthy or ill, good or bad, rich or poor?

Praise God for all your blessings as you grow in communion with your family and friends since your reception of your First Communion. We can never exhaust God's blessings, so expect miracles of love, mercy and joy as you perform the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy!

ALL ARE WELCOME! ✦ 2400 N. PROVIDENCE ROAD ✦ MEDIA, PENNSYLVANIA 19063

Today's Gospel Reading
Matthew 14:22-33

"Amazing Grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found, was blind but now I see."

I am sure that all of us are familiar with the hymn, Amazing Grace, which was written by John Newton. The hymn gives us the message that forgiveness and redemption are possible regardless of the sins we have committed. Amazing Grace has since become one of the most recognizable songs in the English spoken language.

"Through many dangers, toils, and snares, I have already come; 'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home."

I believe that we can all identify with the fourth verse. For the past four months, we have all been dealing with COVID-19, and we have tried to come through the many dangers, toils, and snares of this terrible pandemic. We were not left to do it on our own. With the help of prayer it was grace that has brought us safely thus far and we trust that God will continue to be at our side and guide us on.

When many of us are faced with a trial, we may be tempted to say, "God doesn't care about me because He never listens to my prayers for help!" But I think, in our hearts, we know that God is always faithful and never abandons us and is not the cause of our suffering. In fact, throughout history an incredible amount of suffering has been and is still being caused by the inhumanity of humans toward others. We can confirm this by reading a newspaper or by listening to "today's bad news" reports.

So much of this suffering could be avoided if everyone would take the Holy Gospels to heart. We would have "heaven on earth." But since we don't, we have to face storms like the disciples in today's Gospel narrative, Jesus catching Peter by the hand is, I think, Jesus' way of telling us that He is there for all people all of the time. He is there to catch their hands lead them to safety. You may be struggling with a problem at this very moment and be in need of Our Lord. Hear His voice as He calls to you, the same way He calls to the disciples in the Gospel. He says, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." It is much better to hear those words rather than, as Peter cried out to be saved, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"

There are two themes that are apparent in our first reading and in the Gospel. They are hearing the call and fearfulness. Elijah and Peter both hear the call within their fear and frailty. After all, they are only men. Elijah hears something just loud enough to be from God and yet not so loud as to be sure of exactly what it is. He would have to leave the security of the cave and face his fear. Elijah is at Horeb where the covenant with Moses was concluded. The breakdown of faith has overcome Israel. God commands Elijah to go back and continue his work of being a prophet of the covenant; and he does! Peter hears the call, responds and it seems Jesus fails him, even tricked him, as he sinks into the deep water. Peter has faith, but he has fears as well. It seems that whenever Peter has a failure, Jesus reveals to him that He is here for those who can find faith within their fears.

What then does all of this mean? When I prepare a couple for marriage I tell them that walking down the aisle is like walking on water. Commitment, covenant and trust are formed from the love a couple have for each other as they prepare for the Holy Sacrament of Matrimony. Often times the earthquakes, wind and stormy seas we have heard about in today's readings are all we hear in a marriage and in our individual lives. But faith needs doubt to be real and in time God grabs onto us so we can hear His voice saying to us, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." I would never say to a young couple, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" At one time or another doubt does rear its ugly head in all of our lives. You see, the only sure thing about the unknown is that it is unknown. I will end by saying to the couples who marry, to the Prophet Elijah, to the disciples on the boat, and to all of us, may God's "Amazing Grace" be always with us, through the many dangers, toils and snares and lead us all safely home.

Question of the Day: Will you stand in humble, grateful awe before the Lord in acknowledgement of the graces you have been given?

Prayer: "O my God and my all, in Thy goodness and mercy, grant that before I die I may regain all the graces which I have lost through my carelessness and folly. Permit me to attain the degree of merit and perfection to which Thou didst desire to lead me, and which I failed by my unfaithfulness to reach. Mercifully grant also that others regain the graces which they have lost through my fault. This I humbly beg through the merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Virgin Mary. Amen."

NEW! FALL CYO SPORTS & COVID ANNOUNCEMENT

The status of our fall season has been determined by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia CYO. As of July 31, the CYO Department has decided to suspend all competition between programs for the foreseeable future for the safety of our players, students, parishioners, volunteers, and parents. Competition for the 2020 CYO season will be suspended until further notice. No games or matches will take place between CYO programs. The formation of CYO teams was a concern in the Archdiocesan schools' cohort plans, and competitions between teams will only exacerbate that problem. considerations regarding this decision.

Our PREP complements the spiritual and religious formation that is ongoing in our families' homes. We recognize parents as "the first and foremost educators of their children," and the first to communicate the faith to their children. Our program has the fundamental task of complementing, reinforcing, and extending the family's efforts. In keeping with the archdiocesan directives for the unprecedented situation, PREP will be presented completely online for the 2020-2021 school year. The model will be the Family Catechesis program (parents and students will receive the first lesson in each unit in the textbook, Finding God, for that month; parents will teach the remaining lessons in the unit at home).

In September, a safe delivery of materials to students is planned. The first lesson of each unit will be pre-recorded and the link will be provided to the families. In addition, lessons on the theme of the unit will be pre-recorded each month for the parents. Sixth and seventh grade will have two lessons per month with a more detailed summary of the information in order to prepare them for the sacrament of Confirmation in seventh grade.

Information will be emailed to all PREP families. Please register via the parish website, Religious Education tab/menu. Thank you for your investment in your family's religious education.
