BUILDING A FAMILY OF FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST — THROUGH CATHOLIC WORSHIP, EDUCATION & CHARITY.

SEPTEMBER 29, 2019

THE TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Chosen to Pass on Faith and Hope

This upcoming Tuesday, October 1, on the feast of Saint Therese the Little Flower, I invite all parish leaders and those striving to pass on the gift of faith and hope to join us for an evening of Adult Faith Formation. Our program begins at 6:30 PM with fellowship and sandwiches. I will share the blessings and burdens of fulfilling our Parish Mission Statement: "Building a Family of Faith in Jesus Christ, through Catholic Worship, Education and Charity."

I pray and implore all to participate who are present heads and board members of all our amazing ministries, organizations, and societies. When the pews, even at Saint Mary Magdalen, are becoming empty for offering our thanks to God, there is less gratitude in sacrificing our time and talents in our own personal and family life. The best defense to promote our faith rather than live in fear is a good offense. Father James McGuinn, Rector of Saint Joseph Retreat Center in Malvern, will share how adult faith formation is essential for passing on faith and hope in a loving and merciful manner. We invite all to share how we can encourage more to practice and promote our faith.

Baptism calls us all to share in Christ's great commission to "Go forth and baptize all in the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit." We have a responsibility as laity to be the priest of our loved one by sacrificing our lives and live a virtuous life to inspire faith in them. As prophets, we have to teach by word and example the beliefs of our Church. As royal sons and daughters of Christ the Kingly, we are to serve as Good Samaritans with charity and compassion by carrying broken and beaten to the inn of the Church. In the Good News, we see Lazarus poor and starving at the gate of the rich Dives, who is indifferent to Lazarus begging just for the scraps that Dive's dogs are enjoying. The biggest sin as your Pastor is to neglect the Spiritual WORKS OF MERCY. For studies reveal that people who strive to practice the Corporal Works of Mercy have a strong personal and public faith in God. Providing for the physical, emotional, intellectual and social essentials for our loved ones can best be done by believing that we come from heaven and our destined to heaven. That is why we have to imitate Jesus as our only way and truth to eternal life and love.

Works of Mercy: The works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities. Instructing, advising, consoling, comforting are spiritual works of mercy, as are forgiving and bearing wrongs patiently. The corporal works of mercy consist especially in feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead. among all these, giving alms to the poor is one of the chief witnesses to fraternal charity: it is also a work of justice pleasing to God.

BE A DISCIPLE THROUGH MINISTRY

God created us to know, love and serve Him with our whole mind and heart and to love one another as God first loved us. Pope Benedict XVI and I believe that we can only grow as a disciple of Jesus, by understanding God's plan for our life through the scriptures and traditions of our Catholic faith. We are highlighting the various parish groups, to encourage all to participate and to grow in holiness and integrity of life, as a disciple of Jesus. Peace in Jesus—Father Ralph

The Chasm Between Us

First Reading: Amos 6:1A, 4-7

Woe to the complacent in Zion!

We all cherish those hours when we can stretch out, enjoy a meal, listen to some music, and relax. It can seem annoying that Amos, a prophet with a dark mood, wants to spoil one of those truly delicious times with his bad-tempered accusations. Isn't it all right to enjoy some sweet downtime without all of this pious finger pointing? Our personal comfort isn't the problem Amos sees in this scenario. It is the terrible want of others that our complacency fails to address. Hard-working people raise the lament: But we earned our happy hour; don't we deserve it? Ah, but this suggests the poor have earned their suffering, which is true about as often as one earns the right to be born healthy, raised by stay-together parents, attend good schools, or grow up in a country of opportunity. We all have good reason to be grateful, generous, and just.

How can you share the comfort you enjoy with someone else today?

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 6:11-16

But you, man of god, compete well for the faith.

It helps to talk to people in terms they understand. Some folks respond to poetry, others to movie references, and still others to the Dow Jones Industrial Average. And a lot of people— from the time of early Greece to last I checked—perk up and pay attention when you make a sports analogy. St. Paul, living in the Greco-Roman world, makes a lot of sports comparisons for this reason. His society was wild about competition. Paul urges his younger associate Timothy to compete in the realm of the spirit with the diligence and energy he might employ in an Olympic contest. What if we all pole-vaulted for peace? Jumped for justice? Raced for reconciliation?

Fought down the field for faith? But just in case you are not a sports fan, let me put it to you this way: be passionate about what you value most. The stakes have never been higher.

What are you most passionate about?

What will you do for passion that you won't do for any other reason?

Gospel: Luke 16:19-31

"Between you and us is a great chasm to prevent anyone from crossing."

The wealth gap is larger than ever in this country, we keep hearing. According to a Pew Research Center Report, upper income families are seven times richer than middle class ones--a gap twice as wide as in 1995. The means of poorest families are seventy times smaller than the wealthiest. The top .1 percent of Americans hold more wealth than the 90 percent at the bottom. This makes our country the fourth most uneven in income distribution globally. Only Chile, Mexico and Turkey are in worst straits. The wealth gap doesn't measure the value of persons, only of what is in their pockets. But social unrest and deep frustration arises when communities or regions feel the deck is stacked against them and in someone else's favor. In gospel terms, the rich man better start caring about Lazarus. The time to listen to the warning is now.

What does your parish or community do to bridge the gap?
