BUILDING A FAMILY OF FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST — THROUGH CATHOLIC WORSHIP, EDUCATION & CHARITY.

AUGUST 22, 2021

THE TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Family at Prayer is a Family at Peace

I praise God and thank you for coming in person to celebrate Mass together with grateful hearts and joyful spirits. What a blessing to welcome you back and see you engaging and speaking with each other after Mass.

We believe that by praying to our loving and merciful Father and Jesus, our redeemer, we can promote healing and grow in holiness. The battle for our souls is evident within each of us and in our world. Only God's Powerful Spirit can restore hope and trust within our families and friendships and aid our spiritual and world leaders in working for justice and peace. The devil tempts us to lose faith as we watch the horrible violence and destruction of human life, but Jesus prays that we join Him in sacrificing ourselves and by upholding all life from the womb to our last breath. Nourish yourself in the Eucharist and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Reflect on the Word of God and pray the rosary with family and friends—for a family at prayer is a family at peace.

Prayer: Lord God, I believe you are a loving and merciful Father who sent Jesus to teach us the way and the truth to live and love one another as your precious children. I hope in you. I know that you will always take care of me. I want to be a sign of my love for you, my family, and all who need me to teach them your divine love by my good example. Lord, help me to be faithful in carrying out the commitments of my state of life. I offer my time, talents, and treasure to Saint Mary Magdalen Parish Family to build a family of faith in Jesus Christ through Catholic worship, education, and charity. Jesus, be my Lord and my best friend so that I can pass on the gift of faith, hope, and love to all, especially your precious children. Bless us with your Holy Spirit (God's Powerful Spirit—GPS) to grace and guide our family, friends, and especially all your precious children to strive to live a life of virtue now so that we can enjoy heaven together. Amen.

NEW! RCIA INFORMATION SESSION TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7 • 7:30 PM

Are You Considering Becoming a Catholic, or Want to Complete Your Sacraments of Initiation?

Now could be a time in your life of inquiring and questioning of the Catholic faith. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) allows you the time to seek out the truths and understand the teachings and practices as you journey in the faith through the Catholic Church. RCIA is the process by which you prepare to be received into full communion with the Catholic Church. The RCIA provides the opportunity to grow in the faith supported by our parish community. You begin with a period of Inquiry followed by weekly Mass attendance, a study of the faith, practices, and doctrines of the Catholic Church, which leads to your initiation through either baptism or your profession of faith and reception of the sacraments.

An information session will take place on Tuesday, September 7 at 7:30 PM in the church.

For more information, please get in touch with Deacon Peter Zurbach at pzurbach@sj.edu.

A Prayer to St. Mary Magdalen

Saint Mary Magdalen, through your friendship with our Lord, Jesus Christ, you were delivered from the seven demons of pride, anger, lust, greed, envy, gluttony, and sloth. Through the grace and guidance of the Holy Spirit, renew within us the sevenfold gifts of wisdom, knowledge, understanding, counsel, courage, piety, and fear of the Lord, so that like you, we, too, can announce the good news of our Risen Lord by a life of virtue. Amen.

*A faithful friend is a sturdy shelter;
the one who finds one finds a treasure.
A faithful friend is beyond price; no sum can balance its worth. A faithful friend is a life-saving remedy, such as one who fears God finds.*

THE SUNDAY REFLECTION

Book of Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b

Psalms 34:2-3, 16-17, 18-19, 20-21

Ephesians 5:21-32, & John 6:60-69

In today's Gospel narrative, Jesus had finished His saying many things hard for even His disciples to hear. They listened to him telling them about eating His flesh and being the "Bread of Life," and some have decided to leave Him. We see Him turn to His closest friends and ask whether they will leave as well. Peter, speaking for all of them, as well as for all of us, replies, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life." As we know, eventually, they will also leave to find more innoxious places to go temporarily.

If not understood, Saint Paul's letter to the Ephesians might cause wives and husbands to leave Jesus or even each other. There are firm and disorienting words, like 'subordinate,' and the husband is the 'head of his wife,' when taken out of context and reacted to, creating doubt in Jesus and turning away from Him a proper response. Or is it?

The disciples considered their decision to return to their families rather than following Jesus. The steps they used in arriving at their decision were based to the issue at hand. They thought out the problem, were decisive and stuck to their decision, and were faithful to the decision. We can assume that those who chose a life not in Jesus are true to their decision. Why did some no longer walk with Jesus? Similarly, why do some family members arrive at different ways of responding to the existence of God and the person of Jesus? I am sorry to say that I don't have an answer to those questions.

I've decided, after reviewing the 'evidence', that Jesus continues to embrace us all, both those who walk His Way and those who walk another way. However, Jesus ALWAYS remains faithful to all of us. With Him, it is not yes or no—just YES.

As humans, we become aware of new things and think them over to see if we need to make a new choice. Our faith response is not written in stone but in our hearts of flesh, so we react accordingly.

To follow Jesus is not to be afraid of asking or being asked tough questions. I believe that we can move more devotedly in the life of Christ by just re-reading our Baptismal promise and acknowledging that

He claims us through water and fire on that day and each day that follows.

Question of the Day: How will you allow yourself to follow Jesus, who is the Way, the truth, and the life?

Prayer: Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life; you have the words of everlasting life.

– Deacon Anthony Cincotta

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

St. John Vianney (1786-1859)

Patron Saint of Priests

God, please give to Your Church many more innumerable priests after Your own heart. May they be worthy representatives of Christ the Good Shepherd. May they wholeheartedly devote themselves to prayer and penance; be examples of humility and poverty; shining models of holiness; tireless and powerful preachers of the Word of God; zealous dispensers of Your grace in the sacraments. May their loving devotion to Your Son, Jesus in the Eucharist, and Mary, His Mother, be the twin fountains of fruitfulness for their ministry. Amen.

A LAUGH WITH THE PASTOR

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

This month, we helped a woman suffering in a sweltering apartment by purchasing and installing an A/C window unit for her. In addition, SVDP also assisted a woman who could not pay her car insurance and living expenses due to a financial shortfall. We are so thankful for your donations, which may be left in the metal box in the Narthex. If you know of someone needing emergency aid, call Paul Feuerstein at 610-529-1672.

SMM CAMPUS IMPROVEMENTS

Facilities updates and enhancements are in full swing this summer! Investing in the future of our parish and school, we will spend approximately $350,000 on these improvements. To ensure a high-quality experience, we upgraded the Livestream capabilities, added new cameras, and upgraded the church sound system. We addressed structural concerns in the cupulas and bell tower by replacing the windows, patching and painting, and replacing the lighting fixtures with efficient LED lights. We continue our restorations in the school, ensuring enhanced security with a new fire alarm system and emergency lighting. We have also upgraded the flooring, replaced or repaired windows, and replaced crumbling sewer piping. We are replacing a large portion of the rooftop ventilation system to ensure clean air movement. We are blessed to be able to improve our church and school for the benefit of everyone. We are grateful for your continued support of our spiritual home.
