First Reading:  Zechariah 9:9-10

Thus says the Lord:  Rejoice heartily, O daughter Zion, shout for joy, O daughter Jerusalem!  See, your king shall come to you; a just savior is he, meek, and riding on an ass, on a colt, the foal of an ass.  He shall banish the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem; the warrior’s bow shall be banished, and he shall proclaim peace to the nations.  His dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 145

Cantor:  I will extol you, O my God and King, and I will bless your name forever and ever.  Every day will I bless you, and I will praise your name forever and ever.

Cantor:  The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness.  The Lord is good to all and compassionate toward all his works.

Cantor:  Let all your works give you thanks, O Lord, and let your faithful ones bless you.  Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

Cantor:  The Lord is faithful in all his words and holy in all his works.  The Lord lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.
Second Reading: Romans 8:9, 11-13

Brothers and sisters:
You are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit,
if only the Spirit of God dwells in you.
Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him.
If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also,
through his Spirit that dwells in you.
Consequently, brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh,
to live according to the flesh.
For if you live according to the flesh, you will die,
but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia

Gospel Reading: Matthew 11:25-30

At that time Jesus exclaimed: “I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones.
Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.
All things have been handed over to me by my Father.
No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.”
“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

I keep the Lord lies in you alone; my happiness lies in you alone. ever in my sight: since he is at my right hand I shall stand firm.

Recessional Hymn: America

My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty,
My native country, thee, Land of the noble free,
Let music swell the breeze, And ring from all the trees

Of thee I sing; Land where my fathers died,
Thy name I love; I love thy rocks and rills,
Sweet freedom's song; Let mortal tongues awake;

Land of the pilgrims' pride., From every Thy woods and temple hills; My heart with Let all that breathes partake; Let rocks their mountain-side Let freedom ring!

rapture thrills, Like that above.
silence break, The sound prolong.
